

THE PAVILION STUDY CENTRE COLLECTIVE WORSHIP POLICY

The Pavilion study Centre aims to meet the requirements of collective worship at school. However, it is recognised that due to the nature of the school, an act of collective worship would be difficult for the following reasons:

- There is no occasion when all pupils are on site together
- We have no suitable room for a large assembly
- It is felt that due to the nature of the pupils behavioural and emotional difficulties, a meeting of this sort would prove unproductive.

Implementation

- As many of the pupils are at an immature stage of their social development, they need encouragement and positive input in order to be tolerant and accept the ideals and beliefs of others. It is felt that a smaller group is a more suitable environment for this to happen. Registration group meetings are held on a daily basis with form tutors, where social, moral and other relevant issues are discussed. These meetings endeavour to uphold the general ethos of the unit. That is, that all individuals have the right to be safe, to be heard and to be valued.
- Religious Education will be provided for in the school curriculum where values of a broadly Christian nature will be reflected upon.
- Citizenship, PSHE and individual mentoring also play an increasingly important role within the school, the emphasis being strongly focused on the pupils' social, moral, cultural and spiritual development.
